November — Issue 11

Dear Readers:

Here we are, already past Halloween and quickly heading for the holidays just around the corner. It's a busy time of the year with many of us already well into our planning and shopping for those special gatherings with family and friends.

The Sprinkler Factory has many events scheduled through November and December. If you're looking for that special gift, check out the many offerings our artists finely hand craft, or sign up for any of the many classes our artists offer and create your own one of a kind special gift for that loved one. There are many one day workshops, as well as drop in open studio times. Perfect for anyone with a limited schedule.

We hope to see you join in!!

In This Issue:

Final Thoughts

Many of our artists also exhibit their work outside of the Sprinkler Factory.

Currently Tina Marcus is exhibiting her prints at the Sahara Restaurant on Hyland Street in Worcester. Treat yourself to great Middle Eastern cuisine while enjoying her beautiful exhibit adorning the walls of this popular restaurant!

Carolyn Hebert is exhibiting her fine pearl jewelry creations at the Sakura Tokyo Restaurant on Park Ave. in Worcester. Enjoy Sushi and other Japanese culinary delights at affordable prices every day of the week. Sakura Tokyo also has a great lounge with live bands every Friday and Saturday night.

Happy Thanksgiving, and a safe and healthy Holiday to all!
